Subject

Due to the ease with which people can open up modules on the Legend and the trouble this can cause by pulling ribbon cables we have removed the old clip that allowed easy lifting of the module. These have been replaced with a latch system that requires a TORX screw driver to loosen the clip.

If replacement modules are shipped they will be shipped with old style latches fitted to them. Also included will be a set up new style fixings that will allow a swap over to the new style if required.

Drill out the old fixing rivet and remove the black plastic. The fixing plate may be bolted in place if a rivet gun is not available

This part will not be on a new style console
